

Feast

By Polyglot Theatre at MPavilion

Visual Story

polyglot
theatre is child's play ~~~

Before Feast

I will go to MPavilion to be part of a workshop called Feast with performers from Polyglot Theatre.

MPavilion is a colourful structure in Queen Victoria Gardens.

Feast will be under the orange waffle canopy.

There will be friendly people at MPavilion who will let me know that I am in the right place. I can say hello if I want to.

Other people will also be arriving for Feast.

During Feast

There will be long tables covered with white tablecloths.

There will be paper, cardboard, tape and paper plates.

I can use these and my imagination to create delicious (or disgusting!) dishes.

The Polyglot performers will help me add my dishes to the menu.

Other people will be creating and playing too.

Some Polyglot Theatre performers I might meet:

Justine

Tirese

After Feast

When Feast is finished, I can take my time to explore Queen Victoria Gardens before I leave.

About Polyglot Theatre

Polyglot Theatre is a world-renowned contemporary theatre company based in Melbourne, Australia, making exceptional arts experiences for children and families. Our unique brand of theatre encompasses a wide variety of forms and is shared with audiences everywhere, from the world's most prestigious theatres to the football grounds of regional Australia.

Polyglot's artistic and philosophical approach of child-centred practice has earned us a strong reputation at home and abroad as a leader in the Theatre for Young Audiences sector, celebrated for creating distinctive, participatory works that are playful and conceptually rigorous. Access is central to our work at Polyglot, driven by the right of all children to experience growth and resilience through creative play.

About MPavilion

MPavilion is Australia's leading architecture commission—a cultural laboratory where the community can come together to engage and share. It is an ongoing initiative of the Naomi Milgrom Foundation and is supported by the City of Melbourne and State Government of Victoria through Creative Victoria.

At the close of each season, the MPavilion is gifted by the Naomi Milgrom Foundation to the people of Victoria and relocated to a new, permanent home, where it can be engaged by the community.

In 2022, Bangkok-based architecture and design practice, all(zone) have designed the ninth MPavilion for the Queen Victoria Gardens. all(zone)'s MPavilion 2022 will be open to the public from Thursday 8 December 2022 until Thursday 6 April 2023.
