theatre is child's play ~~~

Before Tangle

I will go to Bunjil Place in Narre Warren to be part of a show called Tangle.

Bunjil Place is a big building with a curvy roof.

Inside is an open space with a café, a library, a gallery and a theatre. There will be other people there.

Tangle will be outside in the Plaza.

There will be friendly people at the Plaza who will let me know that I am in the right place. I can say hello if I want to.

Other people will also be arriving for Tangle.

During Tangle

A musician will be playing funky live music on a keyboard and a saxophone.

A Polyglot person will give me a ball of colourful elastic.

I can weave my elastic any way I want to, in and around the tall golden poles.

Lots of other people will be weaving their colourful elastic too.

Together we will make a spectacular, multi-coloured artwork.

Some Polyglot Theatre performers I might meet:

Briony

Kuda

Lachlan

Nick

I can explore and play in and around the artwork that I am creating.

Other people will be playing in it too.

At the end of the session, I will help push the elastic as high as I can. I can lie down and look at the sky through the elastic.

After Tangle

When Tangle is finished, I can take my time to explore the space before I leave.

The Front of House staff will give me a treat as I leave Tangle.
