

Feast

By Polyglot Theatre

Presented by Shepparton Art Museum and Shepparton Festival for SAM at Sunset

Visual Story

theatre is child's play ~~~

Before Feast

I will go to SAM at Sunset at Shepparton Art Museum to be part of a workshop called Feast with performers from Polyglot Theatre.

Shepparton Art Museum is a big, square building at Victoria Park Lake.

Feast will be on Level 4.
I can take the lift or the stairs.

There will be friendly people who will let me know that I am in the right place. I can say hello if I want to.

Other people will also be arriving for SAM at Sunset and Feast.

During Feast

There will be long tables covered with white tablecloths.

There will be paper, cardboard, tape and paper plates.

I can use these and my imagination to create delicious (or disgusting!) dishes.

The Polyglot performers will help me add my dishes to the menu.

Other people will be creating and playing too.

Some Polyglot Theatre people I might meet:

Lauren

Lexie

Sylvie

After Feast

When Feast is finished, I can take my time to explore SAM at Sunset before I leave.

About Polyglot Theatre

Polyglot Theatre is a world-renowned contemporary theatre company based in Melbourne, Australia, making exceptional arts experiences for children and families. Our unique brand of theatre encompasses a wide variety of forms and is shared with audiences everywhere, from the world's most prestigious theatres to the football grounds of regional Australia.

Polyglot's artistic and philosophical approach of child-centred practice has earned us a strong reputation at home and abroad as a leader in the Theatre for Young Audiences sector, celebrated for creating distinctive, participatory works that are playful and conceptually rigorous. Access is central to our work at Polyglot, driven by the right of all children to experience growth and resilience through creative play.

About Shepparton Art Museum

Shepparton Art Museum (SAM), located on Yorta Yorta Country, is one of Australia's outstanding regional art museums, showcasing our exhibitions and collections in new and exciting ways and creating a welcoming, inclusive and engaging space for all audiences. Artists are central to our work. Our programming is designed to be locally relevant and engage with global contemporary ideas. SAM is recognised for its significant Australian ceramics collection, and our nationally significant collection of Indigenous art. As the only public art museum in Greater Shepparton and north central Victoria, our mission is to present great art in Shepparton, and to contribute to the cultural enrichment, community engagement and economic prosperity of the region.

SAM will stay open until 8pm on the last Thursday of each month to give you an evening of art, creativity, drinks and music. From hands-on, creative workshops to illuminating exhibition tours and live music. SAM at Sunset is a full museum experience!
