

Forest

A creative development by Polyglot Theatre

At ArtPlay

Visual Story

Before Forest

I will go to ArtPlay to be part of a workshop called Forest.

ArtPlay is on the bank of the Yarra River, next to Birrarung Marr.

It is a red brick building.

There is a playground next to ArtPlay.

When I arrive at ArtPlay, I will enter through the orange doors into the foyer.

Other people will be arriving at ArtPlay. They will also be part of Forest.

There will be friendly ArtPlay staff in the foyer to meet me and my family.

I can say hello if I want to.

Some Polyglot people I might meet:

Cat

Emily

Sophia

Zak

During Forest

Forest will take place inside the ArtPlay building, and in the forest outside.

We will begin by sharing ideas and drawing.

The artists will guide us in the forest so we can explore.

What can I see, hear, touch and smell?

I can walk on leaves, bark, soil and sticks. I can hear them under my feet.

We will go back inside ArtPlay to share what we have discovered.

After Forest

I might have a drink or snack, or I can play in the playground next to ArtPlay.

About Polyglot Theatre

Polyglot Theatre is a world-renowned contemporary theatre company based in Melbourne/Naarm making exceptional arts experiences for children and families. Our unique brand of theatre encompasses a wide variety of forms and is shared with audiences everywhere, from the world's most prestigious theatres to the football grounds of regional Australia.

Polyglot's artistic and philosophical approach of child-centred practice has earned us a strong reputation at home and abroad as a leader in the theatre for young audiences (TYA) sector, celebrated for creating distinctive, participatory and inclusive works that are playful and conceptually rigorous. Access is central to our work at Polyglot, driven by the right of all children to experience growth and resilience through creative play and to be captivated by the arts.
