

Catch the Light

A creative development by Polyglot Theatre and Flow Festival Australia

At ArtPlay

Visual Story

polyglot
theatre is child's play

ARTPLAY

Before Catch the Light

I am going to ArtPlay to be part of a workshop called Catch the Light.

ArtPlay is on the bank of the Yarra River, next to Birrarung Marr.

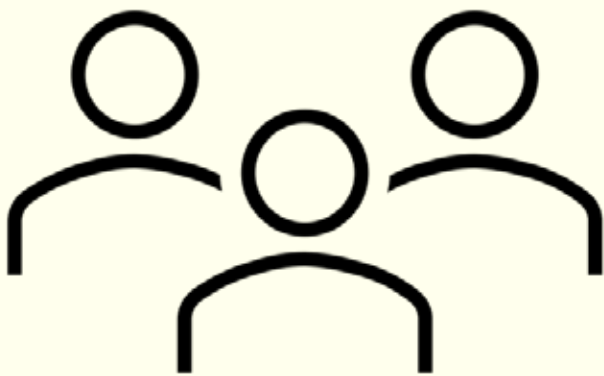

It is a red brick building.

There is a playground next to ArtPlay.

When I arrive at ArtPlay, I will enter through the orange doors into the foyer.

Other people will be arriving at ArtPlay. They will also take part in Catch the Light.

I will be greeted by artists and interpreters in Auslan and/or Spoken English.

I can sign/say hello if I want to.

The artists and interpreters are there to make me feel comfortable and safe.

Some people I might meet:

Emily

Jess

Sylvie

Danni

Cat

Maisy

During Catch the Light

The workshop will happen inside, in the ArtPlay main space.

We might draw all together...

...and use paper, tape, and our imaginations to create things.

We might move around the space together...

...and experiment with light and shadow.

I can choose what I do in
Catch the Light.

After Catch the Light

I might have a drink or snack, or I can play in the playground next to ArtPlay.

My space to draw:

About Polyglot Theatre

Polyglot Theatre is a world-renowned contemporary theatre company based in Melbourne/Naarm, making exceptional arts experiences for children and families. Our unique brand of theatre encompasses a wide variety of forms and is shared with audiences everywhere, from the world's most prestigious stages to the football grounds of regional Australia.

Polyglot's artistic and philosophical approach of child-centred practice has earned us a strong reputation at home and abroad as a leader in the Theatre for Young Audiences sector, celebrated for creating distinctive, participatory works that are playful and conceptually rigorous. Access is central to our work at Polyglot, driven by the right of all children to experience growth and resilience through creative play.
