

Boats

By Polyglot Theatre

Presented by Williamstown Chamber of Commerce

Visual Story

Before Boats

I am going to an event at called Christmas in the Park. While I am there, I can be part of Boats by Polyglot Theatre.

Boats will take place on the lawn of the Commonwealth Reserve.

There will be Polyglot Theatre performers dressed as sailors and other characters.

There will be friendly people who will let me know that I am in the right place. I can say hello if I want to.

Other people will be arriving, and they will be part of Boats as well.

Some Polyglot People I might meet:

Afsaneh

Briony

Julie

Lachlan

Sunny

Tirese

During Boats

One of the performers will give me a cloth boat in which I can sail around on my imaginary sea.

There will be other people sailing too.

I can choose to sail near them or sail away.

There might be performers dressed as sharks...

...trying to escape is part of the fun!

I can be a seagull or sail by myself if I want to.

After Boats

When Boats is finished I can return my boat to the harbour.

About Polyglot Theatre

Polyglot Theatre is a world-renowned contemporary theatre company based in Melbourne/Naarm, making exceptional arts experiences for children and families. Our unique brand of theatre encompasses a wide variety of forms and is shared with audiences everywhere, from the world's most prestigious stages to the football grounds of regional Australia.

Polyglot's artistic and philosophical approach of child-centred practice has earned us a strong reputation at home and abroad as a leader in the Theatre for Young Audiences sector, celebrated for creating distinctive, participatory works that are playful and conceptually rigorous. Access is fundamental to our work at Polyglot; we are driven by the right of all children to experience growth and resilience through creative play.
