Before Paper Planet

I will go to Wyndham Cultural Centre to be part of a show called Paper Planet.

Wyndham Cultural Centre is a big building with tall glass windows. There is an art gallery and theatre inside.

Paper Planet will take place in the Wyndham Art Gallery.

There will be friendly people who will let me know that I am in the right place. I can say hello if I want to.

Other people will be arriving, and they will also be part of Paper Planet.

Some Polyglot People I might meet:

An

Lachlan

Maisy

Sunny

Sylvie

During Paper Planet

There will be brown cardboard trees, and plants and creatures made from paper.

There will be different coloured lights and soft rainforest sounds.

Polyglot performers will be creating, playing and making music in the forest.

I can explore the forest, or spend time feeling what is going on around me.

I can use my imagination and paper and tape to add to the world around me.

I can choose what I do in Paper Planet.

After Paper Planet

When Paper Planet is finished, I will leave the forest.

I can make myself a forest at home, and play with my family and friends.

About Polyglot Theatre

Polyglot Theatre is a world-renowned contemporary theatre company based in Melbourne/Naarm, making exceptional arts experiences for children and families. Our unique brand of theatre encompasses a wide variety of forms and is shared with audiences everywhere, from the world's most prestigious stages to the football grounds of regional Australia.

Polyglot's artistic and philosophical approach of child-centred practice has earned us a strong reputation at home and abroad as a leader in the Theatre for Young Audiences sector, celebrated for creating distinctive, participatory works that are playful and conceptually rigorous. Access is fundamental to our work at Polyglot; we are driven by the right of all children to experience growth and resilience through creative play.
