Before Paper Planet.

I will go to Fed Square to be part of a show called Paper Planet.

Fed Square is a gathering place in the city, made of sandstone cobbles.

Paper Planet will take place in The Edge, a big room with wooden floors and big, glass triangular windows.

There will be friendly people who will let me know that I am in the right place. I can say hello if I want to.

Other people will be arriving, and they will also be part of Paper Planet.

Some Polyglot people I might meet.

During Paper Planet.

There will be brown cardboard trees, and plants and creatures made from paper.

There will be different coloured lights and soft rainforest sounds.

Polyglot performers will be creating, playing and making music in the forest.

I can explore the forest, or spend time feeling what is going on around me.

I can use my imagination and paper and tape to add to the world around me.

I can choose what I do in Paper Planet.

After Paper Planet.

When Paper Planet is finished, I will leave the forest.

I can make myself a forest at home, and play with my family and friends.

About Fed Square

Fed Square is the gateway to the art precinct – and as Melbourne's public square it is the civic, cultural and community heart of the city. It also home to three of Victoria's major cultural institutions: ACMI – Australia's Museum of Screen Culture, the Koorie Heritage Trust (KHT) and The Ian Potter Centre: NGV Australia.

Located opposite the iconic Flinders Street Station, Fed Square is also Melbourne's premier meeting place, tourist destination and event venue for thousands of events a year – since opening in 2002, it has seen more than 110 million visits.

This season of Paper Planet is presented by Fed Square and supported by the City of Melbourne.
